LIVING WITHIN OUR VALUES

Each month, Superintendent Vianello asks CCPS sta members to recognize their who are "Living within our Values." CCPS employee values are empowerment, comm collaboration, communication, integrity, resilience, innovation, and safety. In the month September, two of our exceptional teachers were recognized by their peers for exemplifyi least one of these core values. Congratulations, Mrs. Tara Eiken and Mrs. Megan Guarent

PCMS WINS ATTENDANCE CHALLENGE!

For the month of September, CCPS challenged their students to come to the school every day. PCMS competed against the other CCPS middle schools for the monthly challenge and held our own weekly challenges as well. For one of those weeks, students could "shine a light" on the importance of showing up for school by wearing neon. Our students not only knocked that weekly challenge out of the park, but PCMS won the district challenge, too! Congratulations, Terriers!

A MESSAGE FROM THE MEDIA SPECIALIST, TONI SALVATORE

This past Friday, September 13, we held our rst annual Summer Reading Celebrati the Media Center! Students were challenged to read at least 3 SSYRA books over the s in order to get an invitation to a special luncheon in September. The students who rea least 5 SSYRA books were also entered into a grand prize
